¹ Past performance is no guarantee or reliable indication of future results and all rates of return and past results provided herein are for historical comparison purposes only.

Multiplatform Forex B2B Partnership Program (FAQ)

Promo-code Example: int00010011

Your Promo-code is used as a part of the links that you publish online; it is also embedded in the versions of Multiplatform Forex that we let you download from our site. The Promo-code is very important! It defines, to which partner belongs a final Forex player, so the commission can be charged correctly. The Promo-code is embedded in all configuration and executable files of each version of the mobile and PC application on the low technical level to provide accurate money collection process and additional security.

How does the authentication of end user happen?

Multiplatform Forex allows authenticating client engaged by a partner via Promo-codes, embedded in the software. A Promo-code is a code that is assigned to a partner during registration in the program.

When client registers an account, his copy of Multiplatform Forex application sends the partner's Promo-code, and the authentication of a client happens, whom the partner has engaged.

Multiplatform Forex is unique possibility to be even more mobile and get a free access to FX information. It's a chance to become really mobile trader and make your deals directly from a mobile phone or laptop.

Every new customer receives:

- Every user who opened a contest demo account via Multiplatform Forex, receives USD 100 to this account.
- Free software for their cell phone, PC or laptop.
- An account with dealing centre Forex EuroClub (accounts are opened for free).
- Free access to online news, quarters, experts and technical analysis of finance markets in real time forever.
- Taking part in the weekly trader contest (if registered). One may participate in the contest without opening a real account, it is enough to have a demo account and deal with "virtual funds". The winner receives one time real price of USD 240.

Fuds withdrawal and remittance

For B2B Partners

Aurus Group (Australia) transfers the commission funds by clearing, or otherways, as requested.

For end users

Remittance and withdrawal of funds from/to client's account are done according to the Rules of Procedure of dealing centre (Forex EuroClub).
